

Remember to indent the bodies of your IF-THEN and looping structures.

Write a series of MATLAB files that will duplicate the image in the given PDF file. The starred points have a y -coordinate of 0.75. Your files should be written in a manner such that you only need to type in a single command to generate the entire image. You should hand in all of your files and a printout of your graph.