

Do the problems at the end of the Matlab Graphing notes. All you need to hand in is printouts of the graphs you create. You can write the requested intersection points from the first question on your graph.